Army Specialist Five Robert L. Richmond, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Richmond Sr., 19323 Pruitt Dr., participated with other personnel from the 31st Surgical Hospital in Operation Safecarry II in Germany April 19-22.

The operation, conducted at night under blackout conditions, included a mock air and chemical, biological, and radiological attack, and was designed to determine the unit's ability to set up, operate and defend a field hospital under simulated combat conditions.

Regularly assigned as a medical specialist at the hospital in Hochst, Specialist Richmond entered the Army in September 1950 and arrived overseas in July 1958 on this tour of duty.

Richmond, whose wife, Edith, is with him in Germany, attended Capitol Hill High School, Oklahoma City.

Airman Berry T. Burrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. McHugh of 3217 Sonoma, has completed his basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and has been selected to attend a technical training course for Medical Technician. Airmen are selected for this training based on their interest and aptitudes. Airman Burrow was a graduate of Torrance High School prior to enlisting in the Air Force.

Carl J. Gregory, radarman seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Gregory of 1530 W. 261st St., Harbor City, and Burren R. Green, Jr., boilerman fireman, USN, son of Mrs. Myrtle L. Green of Harbor City, both serving aboard the dock landing ship USS Gunston Hall, took part in an amphibious exercise on the beaches of Camp Pendleton, May 4-13.

Airman Tommy L. Simpkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Simpkin of 24442 Winlock Drive, has completed his technical training in the United States Air Force Supply School at Amarillo AFB, Texas, and is now scheduled for assignment to Vandenberg AFB located approximately 45 miles north of Santa Barbara.

The opportunities for educational advancement are unlimited, according to Tech Sgt. Duane K. Hetler, local Air Force Recruiter, who's office is located at 1319 1/2 Sartori.

Airman Gerry L. Goodridge, son of Mrs. Ann Goodridge of 20607 Berendo; Airman James J. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook of 21222 S. Main; and Airman Gordon F. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Smith, 22219 Marbella, have completed their initial phase of Basic Military Training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and are now scheduled to enter Technical Training into their respective career aptitude areas for which they enlisted. Airman Goodridge has been selected for Aircraft & Missile Maintenance at Amarillo AFB, Tex. Airman Cook has also been selected for this type of training. Airman Gordon Smith was chosen for Electronic Repairman at Chanute AFB, Ill.

S/Sgt. Leland E. Mason, Air Force recruiter, located at 1319 1/2 Sartori, Torrance, states that enlistment into the United States Air Force is based solely on an individual's interest and aptitudes, that he is tested prior to enlisting.

If the applicant successfully passes all areas, electronic, mechanical, administration, and general, he decides which one of the four he will enter.

Yneoure E. Channer, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Unander of 1536 1/2 W. 226th St., departed Long Beach, Calif., May 3, aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Henry W. Tucker for a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Purpose of the extended tour is to permit other ships, currently serving overseas, to return to the United States.

The Tucker and her crew, members of Destroyer Squadron Three, will serve with the Taiwan patrol force and also act as escort for aircraft carriers in the Far East.

Airman Third Class Donald D. R. Alford, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Alford of 17230 Atkinson Ave., Torrance, recently reported to the 867th Medical Group at Ernest Harmon AFB, Newfoundland.

Airman Alford, a 1958 graduate of North High where he lettered in football, was assigned as a medical service specialist.

Airman Alford enlisted in the Air Force in September, 1958, and received basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. He was stationed at Castle AFB, Calif., before his assignment to Harmon AFB.
